“Then I heard what sounded like a great multitude, like the roar of rushing waters and like loud peals of thunder, shouting: Hallelujah! For our Lord God Almighty reigns. Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready. Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear. Then the angel said to me, ‘Write: Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb! And he added, These are the true words of God.”

Revelations 19:6-9

How Does it Get there:

- made herself clean, ready ?
- fine linen, bright and clean given to wear?
  - notation in bible – righteous acts of the saints
  - how does the covenant, promised relationship reach the celebration we long for?

Look at Ephesians 5:22-32

- commonly used to teach on Christian marriage
- “but I am talking about Christ and the church. However each one of you also must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.”

“Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ also is the head of the church, He himself being the Savior of the body. But as the church is subject to Christ, so also the wives ought to be to their husbands in everything. Husbands love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her; that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water and the word, that He might present to Himself the church in all her glory, having no spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she should be holy and blameless. So husbands ought also to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself; for no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ also does the church, because we are members of His body.”

Eph.5:22-32
