Leadership developed in a way that will be useful in the local church

- Gather with other believers
- Learn to serve
- Learn to be served
- Come and play
- Answer the call of Christ to “Come to Me...”

“Come to Me...”

Matthew 11:28-30

Our tired and busy world:

Pushing hard at work

Worry about kids

Piano lessons

Hockey/soccer, baseball,
football, volleyball practice

Community groups look for volunteers

Church pressures us to be involved

Camp comes looking for workers

Our tired and busy world:

Our schedules are NOT overwhelming

Our tired and busy world:

Our schedules are NOT overwhelming

We are exhausted because we are operating under a model of guilt, not grace.

“I do not think I could ever worship a God who was suddenly caught unaware of circumstances in His world around me. I do not think I could bow my knees before a God that I had to apologize for. I could never offer myself to a God that needed me. If He needed me, I could not respect Him, and if I could not respect Him, I could not worship Him. I could never say, ‘Father, I know that things are going tough for You these days. Modernism is making tough for the saints, and communism is a serious threat to the Kingdom. God, I know You really need my help, so I’ll offer myself to You.’”

“Some of our missionary appeals are getting close to that same error; that we should engage in missionary work because God needs us so badly. The fact is that God is riding above this world and the clouds are the dust of His feet and if you do not follow Him, you will lose all and God will lose nothing. He will still be glorified in His saints and admired by all those who fear Him.”

A.W. Tozer

We are refreshed as we realize how little we have to offer

“Like a scarecrow in a melon patch, their idols cannot speak; they must be carried because they cannot walk. Do not fear them; they can do no harm nor can they do any good. No one is like you, O Lord; you are great and your name is mighty in power.”

Jeremiah 10:5-6; NIV

We are refreshed as we realize how little we have to offer

God is not glorified because of the work we do but because of the work he does in us
when we serve him.

We are refreshed as we see what God can do through our weaknesses

We are refreshed as we see value in our ministry roles

“Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

Matthew 11:29-30; NIV

How God calls forward the person you were created to be:

God equips us for life

God equips us through our failure

Come To Me...
